FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Motor Vehicle Accident with Entrapment

CONCORD, NH (June 29, 2021) – At 7:45 a.m. this morning, Concord Fire Department units responded to Interstate 393 westbound in the area of Exit 2 for a reported motor vehicle accident. Companies arrived on scene to find a three-vehicle accident with heavy damage and one patient entrapped in a vehicle. Due to the number of patients and severity of injuries, all three Concord Fire Department ambulances responded to the scene. The entrapped patient was extricated by Concord Fire Department personnel. A total of three patients were transported to Concord Hospital. Interstate 393 westbound was closed and traffic diverted onto East Side Drive during the incident. The accident is being investigated by New Hampshire State Police.
